100 iDefinition

Takes you to a superior level of efficiency in the printing experience

PRODUCT INFORMATION

Explorer iDefinition 100g/m² is best suited for documents where unique shade, colour contrast and precise print definition are a must have. Due to the superior grammage, the opacity and increased thickness prevent print show through and sheet distortion. The result is an improved printing definition with better quality printed text and images.

TYPICAL USES

Ideal for reports and presentations.
